Workshop on Delivering Online Presentations

*Tuesday, June 30, 2020
10:00am-12:00pm*

Register here by June 28: <https://forms.illinois.edu/sec/4156614>

When circumstances oblige you to deliver your presentation remotely from your office, your home, or even a hotel room, you face additional challenges, technological and otherwise. This remote lecture discusses and demonstrates the necessary adaptations to your environment, your slides, and your delivery so as to focus the attention of the audience, minimize distractions, and get your message across optimally.

Bio

An engineer (Louvain) and PhD in applied physics (Stanford), Jean-luc Doumont is acclaimed worldwide for his no-nonsense approach, his highly applicable, often life-changing recommendations on a wide range of topics, and Trees, maps, and theorems, his book about “effective communication for rational minds.” For additional information, visit www.principiae.be.
